COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATIONS OF THE CONSUMER PROTECTION PROCEDURES ACT

Travelers United brings this action pursuant to D.C. Code § 28-3905 for injunctive relief and statutory damages against Defendant Clyde’s Restaurant Group (“CRG”) violations of the District’s Consumer Protection Procedures Act (“CPPA”), D.C. Code § 28-3901, et seq. In support of its claims, Travelers United states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is a price deception case. For the last year, Clyde’s Restaurant Group has used an unlawful trade practice called “drip pricing” in advertising its menu items whereby Clyde’s initially hides a portion of a menu items total cost from consumers. Clyde’s Restaurant Group calls this hidden portion of the menu a “2023 surcharge.” The surcharge is imposed at all of the Clyde’s Restaurant Group properties in the District including at Old Ebbitt Grill, which is extremely popular with tourists. One key effect of this price deception is that consumers shopping for the price of lunch the Old Ebbitt Grill's website are misled into believing a lunch at the Old Ebbitt Grill is cheaper than it actually is. The Old Ebbitt Grill's motive in continuing this deceptive practice is pure profit. The Clyde's Restaurant Group, of which the Old Ebbitt Restaurant is a part, has reaped millions of dollars over the last year from this deceptive drip pricing. Travelers United brings this action to force Clyde's Restaurant Group to advertise up-front to consumers the true prices of its menu items. All mandatory fees controlled by the restaurant must be included in the advertised menu price.

2. Clyde's Restaurant Group is a corporation consisting of multiple restaurants with its headquarters in Washington, D.C. Clyde's Restaurant Group owns and manages restaurants throughout the District, Maryland and Virginia. District restaurants run by Clyde's Restaurant Group include Old Ebbitt Grill, The Hamilton, The Hamilton Live, Clyde's of Georgetown, Clyde's of Gallery Place, Fitzgerald's, The Tombs and 1789 Restaurant and Bar. Clyde's Restaurant Group also currently runs Clyde's of Chevy Chase in Chevy Chase, Maryland. They also have plans to open three new restaurants soon: Rye Street Tavern in Baltimore, Maryland, The Ebbitt House in Reston, Virginia and Cordelia Fishbar near Union Market in the District. Clyde's Restaurant Group offers its food and drink to District residents and tourists.
3. Each restaurant in the Clyde's Restaurant Group has a menu with prices available online and at the restaurant. Consumers, particularly tourists who are unfamiliar with restaurants in the area, are likely to look online at a menu in advance to quickly see if a restaurant is in their budget. Consumers may compare menus online between different restaurants to pick a restaurant based on price. If the restaurant does not list the true price of a menu item on its' menu, the consumer is not given the ability to price compare.

4. The Clyde's Group charges an additional mandatory fee it calls "2023 surcharge." This surcharge exists at all Clyde Restaurant Group restaurants. The menu at Old Ebbitt Grill states "Our restaurants have been operating with extraordinary increases in the cost of doing business. High inflation, rising wages and supply chain challenges have continued beyond the pandemic creating a difficult operating environment. We have reluctantly chosen to implement a separate 3.75% fee for 2023 (this is not a gratuity) with the hope that it can be eliminated in the future as conditions approve. We appreciate your support and understanding." Other restaurant establishments in the District have imposed similar fees with a variety of names.¹ Founding Farmers has a 5% "restaurant recovery charge," Petite Cerise has a 3.5% "operations fee" and Proper 21 has a 5% "administrative fee." These function as restaurant resort fees, a total junk fee where the consumer gets nothing other than a deceptive advertised price.
5. Every Clyde's Restaurant Group restaurant in the District and beyond have these drip pricing fees. At every restaurant the advertised price of a menu item is listed without the surcharge. The restaurants could simply just increase prices so that consumers knew the price of an item when ordering, but instead they are hit with a surcharge when presented with the final bill. Consumers often do not know this surcharge existed before seeing the charge on the final bill.
6. The "2023 surcharge" exists to deceive consumers about the actual price of a menu item.

7. This “2023 surcharge” is applied to all menu items at Clyde’s Restaurant Group restaurants in the District meaning the 3.75% hidden fee applies not just to food items but to alcoholic beverages as well making this deceptive fee subject to the Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration’s (ABRA) licensing requirements² for District establishments that serve alcohol.
8. Travelers United institutes this proceeding to stop Clyde’s Restaurant Group from engaging in the unlawful trade practices set forth more fully below in connection with its offer and sale of restaurant food to consumers, including its practice of (1) misleading consumers concerning the amount they must pay for an item on the menu, and (2) advertising menu items without the intent to supply them at advertised prices. Travelers United seeks injunctive relief to prevent Defendant from engaging in these and similar unlawful trade practices, statutory damages to deter Defendant and others similarly situated from engaging in these and similar unlawful trade practices, and the payment of costs and attorney’s fees. Travelers United also hopes that the District’s Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration will follow their requirements for alcoholic beverage licenses in the District by revoking the Clyde’s Restaurant Group’s license until they remove all deceptive fees from their menu.

13. Old Ebbitt Grill is a restaurant operated by the Clyde's Restaurant Group. Old Ebbitt Grill is located at 675 15th Street NW, Washington, D.C., 20005.

CLYDE’S RESTAURANT GROUP DECEPTIVE ADVERTISING PRACTICES

14. This action was commenced after about a year of Clyde’s Restaurant Group charging a “2023 surcharge.” Currently there has been an increased interest in the elimination of “junk fees” on pricing from everything from ticket sales to hotel rooms to menu items.³⁴⁵ Travelers United has sued MGM Resorts, Hyatt, Hilton and Sonesta hotels for their use of drip pricing in advertising hotel rooms.⁶ Restaurant fees, like the “2023 surcharge” are similar to hotel resort fees – guests get absolutely nothing other than a deceptive advertised price.⁷
15. At issue in this case is the growing and continued practice of restaurants advertising one price on their menu but then hitting the guest with a surcharge on the final bill. For instance, the Clyde Restaurant Group’s practice is to initially advertise lower rate for a menu item that does not include the surcharge, but then to include the surcharge in the final charges when the customer gets a bill. The practice means guests think the prices are 3.75% less than they actually are.
16. The Clyde Restaurant Group’s practice of initially advertising only part of a price and then later revealing other charges as the consumer completes the buying process is an example of drip pricing. The White House’s Council of Economic Advisors wrote a blog post titled How Junk Fees Distort Competition on March 21, 2023. The post states that drip pricing occurs “where additional costs are ‘dripped in’ as the consumer goes through the shopping process. This means consumers see an initial upfront price but face a higher true price at the end of the purchase process due to (non-government-imposed) fees.”⁸

The White House explains that “ultimately, the existence of these additional fees serves to obfuscate the true price for a consumer...The use of drip pricing (and the imposition of additional search costs) makes it more difficult for consumers to compare prices across platforms.”⁹

17. Clyde’s Restaurant Group manages at eight restaurants in the District and each restaurant charges consumers the same deceptive 3.75% “2023 Surcharge” fee. The eight restaurants in the District charging this fee are: Old Ebbitt Grill, The Hamilton, Clyde’s of Georgetown, Clyde’s of Gallery Place, Fitzgerald’s, The Tombs and 1789 Restaurant and Bar. The same exact “2023 Surcharge” fee is also charged at Clyde’s of Chevy Chase in Maryland. The only currently operating Clyde’s Restaurant Group establishment that does not seem to charge a “2023 Surcharge” is The Hamilton Live but that is more of a concert venue than a restaurant.

18. Because Clyde’s Restaurant Group charges the same deceptive fee at all eight of their DC restaurants, this shows that this fee exists to deceive consumers, not to actually provide any additional service or experience to the guest.

19. Clyde's Restaurant Group imposes the same deceptive 3.75 percent fee at their highest end restaurant and their most budget restaurant. The 1789 Restaurant and Bar in Georgetown is an elegant restaurant where prices for entrees vary from 34 dollars for basil risotto to 53 dollars for a rack of lamb. Appetizers range from 15 dollars for cauliflower soup to 95 dollars for ossetra caviar. Cost is not likely to be an issue for people dining at this establishment yet 1789 Restaurant and Bar refuses to just list the true price on the menu. Next door to 1789 Restaurant and Bar is another Clyde's Restaurant Group operated restaurant, The Tombs. The Tombs is popular with students of Georgetown University where many are on a student budget. Students can get nachos and a beer for 15 dollars and watch a football game with friends. The Tombs offers starters from 7 to 17 dollars and entrees from 16 to 25 dollars. Cost is likely to be a major factor in purchasing decisions of many people dining at this restaurant.
20. These deceptive restaurant fees are not just a violation of the District's Consumer Protection Procedures Act (CPPA). These deceptive fees are also a violation of the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations Title 23 Alcoholic Beverages where §25-766 Prohibited statements in advertisements clearly states "Advertisements and written notices or other documents that are displayed or provided to the public that contain false or misleading statements with respect to any material fact shall be prohibited."¹⁰ Any establishment in the District charging a deceptive surcharge on alcoholic beverages is in violation of the District's Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration's (ABRA)

21. These fees, not part of the advertised price on a menu, have popped up all over the United States in the past year. The Guardian, a paper based in The United Kingdom, recently ran an article titled “Covert and Confusing ‘Service Charges’ Anger US Diners: They’re not tips – and sometimes, they’re only revealed on itemized receipts, which patrons call dishonest.” The article goes on to say “service fees have emerged as a confusing new facet of restaurant etiquette. Despite the name, a service fee is not the same as a tip and does not necessarily go to servers. Instead, the fee ends up in the hands of a restaurant owner, who will spend it however they see fit.”¹¹

22. The Guardian article also points to a Google Spreadsheet originally created for Los Angeles but now sheets exist for Los Angeles, Chicago, San Diego and The District. Anyone with a Google account can log in and add the newest restaurant fee in their city. The “TransparentFee DMV Database [PUBLIC]”¹² lists 180 restaurants charging some sort of fee in the District.

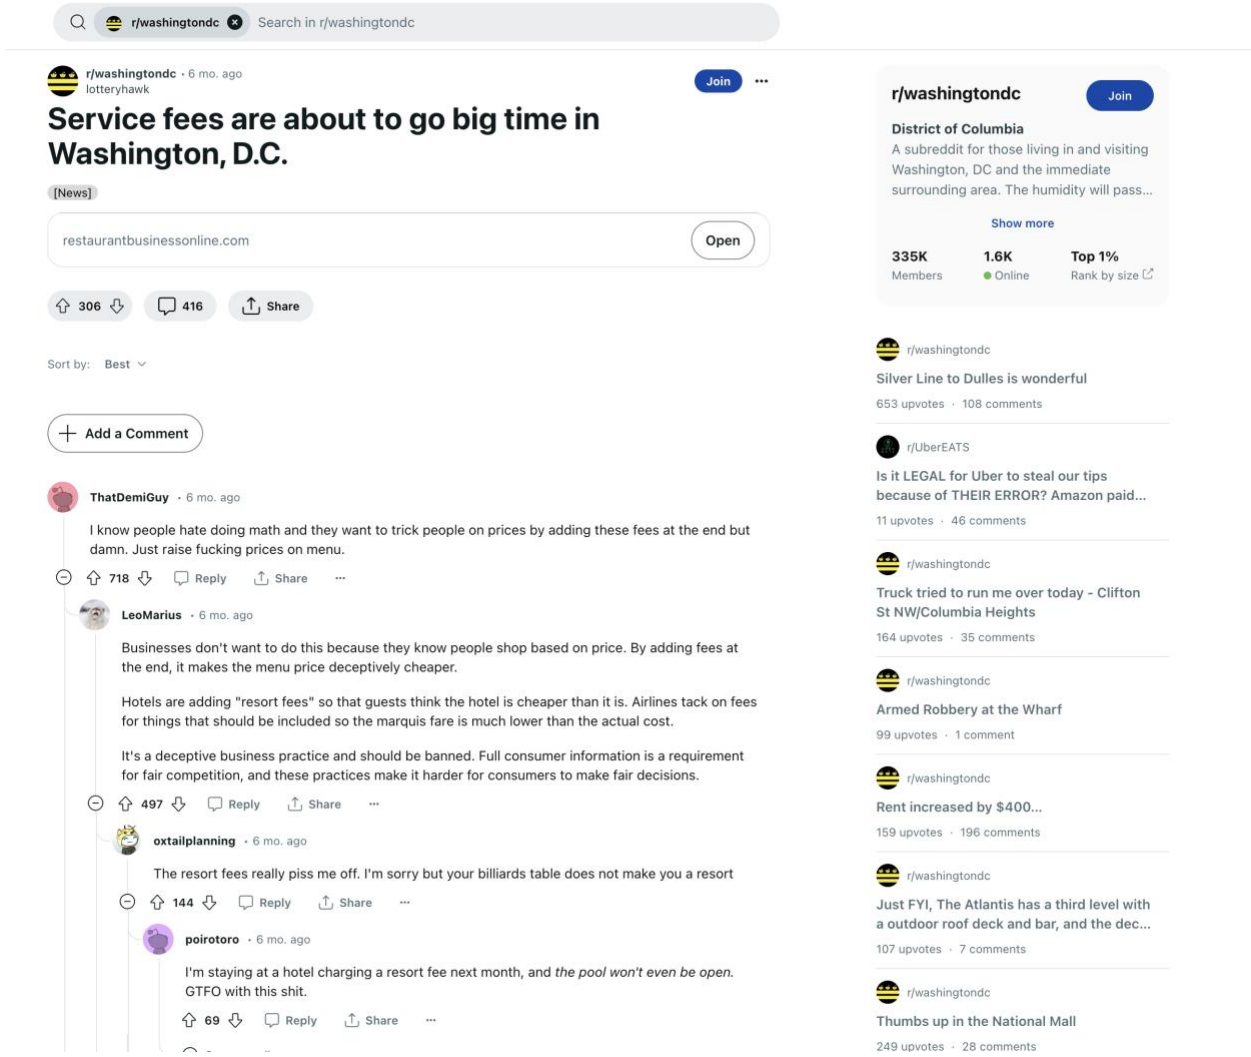

23. The angst against deceptive restaurant fees is currently a hot topic on reddit.com’s Washington, D.C.-focused subreddit (r/washingtondc). Reddit is a popular online forum where people discuss topics of interest. A subreddit is a topic specific forum on the website reddit.com. Deceptive restaurant fees have been a reoccurring topic for the past ten months. A Reddit user posted an article in April 2023 about how “service fees are about to go big time in Washington, D.C.”¹³ and the top comment, upvoted 718 times, is “I know people hate doing math and they want to trick people on prices by adding these fees at the end but damn. Just raise fucking prices on menu.” The second comment, upvoted 497 times, says “Businesses don’t want to do this because they know people shop based on price. By adding fees at the end, it makes the menu price deceptively cheaper. Hotels are adding “resort fees” so that guests think the hotel is cheaper than it is.

Airlines take on fees for things that should be included so the marquis fare is much lower than the actual cost. It's a deceptive business practice and should be banned. Full consumer information is a requirement for fair competition, and these practices make it harder for consumers to make fair decisions."¹⁴ Consumers in the District strongly oppose being charged deceptive restaurant fees.

24. A “2023 surcharge” is ambiguous and uses misleading language that fails to fully convey to a diner how a fee will be used. A fee based on it being the year 2023 does not disclose how the fee will be used.¹⁵ A “2023 surcharge” is in violation of the March 2023 District Office of the Attorney General guidance on restaurant fees and in violation of the Supplemental Business Advisory on Restaurant Fee Disclosure Requirements in the District of Columbia from August 9, 2023.¹⁶
25. By charging consumers a surcharge in addition to the advertised price on the menu, CRG makes millions of additional dollars in revenue without appearing to increase the price that it advertises. Clyde’s Restaurant Group’s unlawful trade practice has affected District consumers, as CRG has charged surcharge pricing to tens of thousands of District consumers over the years charging those consumers well in excess of a million dollars.
26. Clyde’s Restaurant Group exercises control over the surcharge its restaurants charge. They are charging the same 3.75% deceptive fee at every Clyde’s Restaurant Group restaurant in the District. This is an extremely successful restaurant group. This restaurant group sets an example for others in the area. If they think can get away with deceptive, illegal restaurant resort fees, others will think they can as well. No business, no matter how powerful the lobbying group behind it, should be able to violate the District’s Consumer Protection Procedures Act (CPPA).
27. Clyde’s Restaurant Group does extremely well for itself. This is not a mom and pop operation. According to Restaurant Business Online, Old Ebbitt Grill did 33,291,280 dollars in sales in 2019. They are estimated to serve 1,013,433 meals annually.¹⁷

Restaurant Business Online reports that Old Ebbitt Grill landed in the number four spot of the 100 highest-grossing independent restaurants in the United States.¹⁸ The fourth highest grossing restaurant in the United States of America is not struggling for business. There is no excuse for the Old Ebbitt Grill to hide a 3.75% fee instead of simply raising their menu prices and being honest with consumers.

Count One

Violations of the Consumer Protection Procedures Act

32. The allegations in paragraphs 1 through 31 are re-alleged as if fully set forth here.

33. The CPPA is a remedial statute that is to be broadly construed. It establishes an enforceable right to truthful information from merchants about consumer goods and services that are or would be purchased, leased, or received in the District of Columbia §28-3901(c).

34. Travelers United has standing to bring this Count under §28-3905(k)(1)(D)(i) “Subject to sub-paragraph (ii) of this subparagraph, a public interest organization may, on behalf of the interests of a consumer or a class of consumers, bring an action seeking relief from the use by any person of a trade practice in violation of a law of the District if the consumer or class could bring an action under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph for relief from such use by such person of such practice.” Travelers United is a public interest organization, with members in the District, that has done significant advocacy work against deceptive fees across the travel industry, both locally in DC and on the federal level. Deceptive restaurant fees are a trade practice in violation of a law of the District.
35. Restaurant purchases, and the surcharges that come along with restaurant purchases, are consumer goods transactions. They exist for personal, household, or family purposes and a security interest secures the obligation.
36. Clyde’s Restaurant Group, in the ordinary course of business, offers to lease or supply consumer goods and services, and, therefore, is a merchant §28-3901(a)(3).
37. The CPPA prohibits unlawful trade practices in connection with the offer, sale, and supply of consumer goods and services §28-3904.
38. CRG advertisement of prices for their menu items that do not include 3.75% of the price is a misrepresentation of material fact that has a tendency to mislead customers. It is an unlawful trade practice that violates the CPPA, D.C. Code §28-3904(e).

39. Defendant's advertising of menu prices in their restaurants that do not include the "2023 surcharge" constitutes an advertisement or offer without the intent to sell the food and drink items as advertised, which is an unlawful trade practice that violates the CPPA, D.C. Code 14 § 28-3904(h).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Travelers United respectfully requests this Court enter a judgment in its favor and grant relief against Defendant, as follows:

- (a) Permanently enjoin and restrain Defendant, pursuant to D.C. Code § 28-3905(k)(2)(D), from engaging in conduct determined to be in violation of the CPPA;
- (b) Permanently enjoin Defendant from advertising menu items that do not include a mandatory surcharge in advertised for food items at its restaurants;
- (c) Order the Defendant to pay statutory damages to Travelers United pursuant to D.C. Code § 28-3905(k)(2)(A), for each and every violation of the CPPA proven at trial;
- (d) Order the Defendant to pay punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial, pursuant to D.C. Code § 28-3905(k)(2)(C);
- (e) Award Travelers United the costs and reasonable attorney's fees for its investigation and this action, pursuant to D.C. Code § 28-3905(k)(2)(B); and
- (f) Grant such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Jury Demand

Travelers United demands a trial by jury.

Tips for Attending Remote Hearings - Civil Division

Your court hearing may be held remotely. This means that you will participate by phone or by video conference instead of coming to the courthouse. Here are some tips on how to prepare.

How do I know if I have a remote hearing?

The Court will contact you to tell you that your hearing is remote. They may contact you by sending you an email, letter in the mail, or by calling you.

How do I take part in a remote hearing?

The Court will give you step-by-step instructions on how to take part in the remote hearing.

If you lose your written notice, call the Civil Actions Clerk's Office for instructions at:

 202-879-1133

Is there anything that I should do before the day of the hearing?

- Let the court know immediately if you cannot join a hearing because you do not have a phone or computer.

 Civil Actions Clerk's Office: 202-879-1133

- You may want to contact an attorney for legal help.
- You can also find the list of legal services providers at dcourts.gov/coronavirus by clicking on the link that says, "List of Legal Service Providers for Those Without an Attorney."
- Evidence: if you want the judge to review photos or documents, ask the judge how to submit your evidence.
- Witnesses: tell the judge if you want a witness to testify at your hearing.
- Accommodations & Language Access: let the court know if you need an interpreter or other accommodation for your hearing.

Tips for the Hearing

- Join the hearing a few minutes early!
- Charge your computer or phone and make sure you have enough minutes to join the call. Find a private and quiet space. If possible, be alone in a room during the hearing. Try to limit distractions as much as possible. If others are in the room with you, ask if they can be quiet during the hearing.
- Mute your microphone when you are not talking. Mute all sounds on your phone or computer.
- Say your name before you speak so the record is clear. Be prepared to identify your role in the hearing (e.g., observer, plaintiff, defendant, witness, etc.).
- Speak slowly and clearly so everyone hears what you are saying.
- Pause before speaking in case there is a lag. Use a headset or headphones if you can. This will free up your hands and sound better.
- Try not to talk over anyone else. Only one person can speak at a time. If you talk while someone else is talking, the judge will not be able to hear you.
- Have all your documents for the hearing in front of you. Have a pen and paper to take notes.
- If you are not ready for your hearing or want to speak with an attorney, you can ask the judge to postpone your hearing for another date.
- If your sound or video freezes during the hearing, use the chat feature or call the Clerk's Office to let them know that you are having technical issues.

Special Tips for Video Hearings

\(Click here for more information\)

- Download the court's hearing software, WebEx, in advance and do a test run! The Court will provide you with a WebEx link in advance of the hearing.
- Set up the camera at eye level. If you are using your phone, prop it up so you can look at it without holding it.
- Look at the camera when you speak and avoid moving around on the video.
- Wear what you would normally wear to court.
- Sit in a well-lit room with no bright lights behind you.
- If possible, find a blank wall to sit in front of. Remember the judge will be able to see everything on your screen, so pick a location that is not distracting.
